THE PAST WEEK'S NEWS IN THE PASHIONABLE WORLD.

Temporary Suspension of Galety-Some Private Entertaining Done-At the Woman's Club-Personals.

unled the travellers as for as Savannah

Mrs. George W. Bashy has returned from Washington, D. C.

Miss Lulie Lyons is having a delightful visit to friends in Washington. Miss Hatton, of Portsmouth, is the guest of Mrs. Farland, at Mas Nor,

Miss Michier, of Pennsylvania, was guest of honor at a luncheon given by Miss Mary Williams, to which enthusiasm still reverts. The flowers were pink roses. Those present were Misses Bessie Martin, Elsanor Boster, Claudia Palmer, Fannie Ross, Gertrude Camm, Williams, Mrs. A. Oddiekt Brown, Mrs. James Allicon, and Mrs. C. E. Buck.

Miss Lucy Preston Coles is in Washington for the Inauguration.

Miss Florence McKenney has returned

On Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, a were pink roses and violets. erries of courtesion to the charming Hal-timorean. Those present were Miss Brown, Missea Hope and Norma Stew-art, Mrs. Christian, Mrs. John Wallace, Miss Virginia Phyca Miss Chudia Palmer, Mrs. Fannie Ross and Miss Eva Detra-

Miss Berta Welford, who has been spending some time in Charleston, S. C., is now in New Orleans for the Mardi Gras with Mrs. (General) Logan and

. . . Miss Katherine Valentine Montague left pesterday for a two weeks' stay in Bal-

A Montgomery (Ata.) exchange has the following:

"Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kirkpatrick have for their guest Miss Mary Deans Scott, of Richmond, Va. Miss Scott is an attractive young girl, a perfect blonds, and is sore to receive much admiration during her

Miss Scott is a daughter of Mrs. James Miss Scott is a city, who is with her on a visit to relatives in the South. Miss Scott is well known in this city for her many charms of both head end heart.

A Setter recently received by a friend in this city, from Mrs. J. P. Gammon, wife of the late beloved pastor of the Third Presbyterian church, speaks of the convalescence of Miss Louise Gammon, who has for months been critically all, as steady, although very slow. The physician to whose skill, under God's blessing her improvement is due, advises a visit to friends, in Asheville as In the letter Mrs. Gammon speaks warmly of the truly "loving" kindness of the good people of Fredericksburg their sympathy and interest, as having enabled her to bear the cruel weight of trial which began with the death of her husband, and the frustration, through that, of many dear plans for the future of her children. "I look upon the goodness of these lovely people," says the letter, "as these lovely people," says the letter, "as God's direct answer to the prayers of my dear husband." All this falls very pleasantly on Richmond ears, for Dr. Cammon's place in this community was an honored one.

The final Richmond german for the winter of 26.27 went off brilliantly on Monday night, with Mr. Adolphus Blair in the role of leader. As is almost invariably the case for the last german before Lent, there was an unusually large number of dancers, and there was the same bright determination to extract every possible bit of pleasure from the night. Now the season is prantically end-

Shipp, Maysie Scott, Boxla Scott, Hop Stewart, Anne Tennant, Flossle Talbot Ella Thomas, Minnie Tucker, Bruce Wil liams, Lucie Wormeley, Mary Williams Messrs, Gustavus A., and John G. Walker General Charles J. Anderson, Joseph R Anderson, John T. Anderson, Captain W. H. Allison, George Arents, Jr., C. B. W. H. Allison, George Arents, Jr., C. B. Antrim, Carter Branch, John Bryan, Henry Baskerville, John Chamblin, E. D. Christian, Jr., P. H. C. Cabell, Robert Campbell, John Currie, John Croper, Washington, D. C.; Frank A. Davenport, W. G. Ferguson, George Gibson, Palmer Gray, William H. Grant, Jr., Saunders Hobson, Randelph Holiday, W. B. Johnson, Jordan Leake George K. E. Victor Williams, William Walker, Lan-caster Williams, Randolph Williams, G. B. Wall, T. C. Williams, Jr., Adolph Wil-

Mrs. William Symington, who has been the guest of Miss Anne Blair, loft last week for her home, near Asheville, N. C.

The Milton C. Work Whist Club met on Friday evening at Sociock in Miss Lutte Pleasant's parker, with Mrs. Dawson. Mrs. Austin Brockenbrough, and Mrs. William Mayo Taliaferra present as alternates, in addition to the members of the other. the club. The evening was genuinely enjoyable, for, although the object of the meeting is solely perfection in the game, the memberable is particularly

Mrs. W. W. Archer entertained a few friends at cards on Monday afternoon, in honor of Miss Katherine Brown, of Baltimre. The results were those delightful one which are always expected in this connection. Those present were Miss Brown, Mrs. E. C. Minor, Miss Lutie Pleasants, Miss Virginia Pleasants, Mrs. Ben. Purcell, Misses Hôpe and Norma Stewart, Grimnan, Boykin, Betriville, Michier, of Easton, Pa.; Gulle Harrison, of Brandon; Mrs. Andrew Christian, Mrs. Charles V. Carrington, Mrs. George Ben. Johnston, Mrs. Perkinson, Mrs. Frank Haughton and Mrs. Bernard Peyton.

A luncheon at the Westmoreland Club, given by Mr. John Farland, in honor of Misses Watson and Hatton, of Ports-mouth, is included among the delightful private entertaining preceding Ash Wed-

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Charles V. Carrington entertained a small party in honor of Miss Katherine Brown. Indeed a majority of the private entertainments given early in the week were in honor of that young lady:

Miss Bell Perkins is visiting friends in Mrs. R. M. Berkley, of Hanover, with her little daughter, Frances and Carrie, is the guest of her father, Mrs. George Herring, Grace street.

Miss Elizabeth Tucker, of Norfolk, Va., will be the guest of Mrs. Wellford Reed, on Thursday.

Miss Marian Robins entertained a few

Full attention has been paid in a pre-ceding issue to the meeting of the Junior Cakwood Memorial Association at half past four o'clock on Wednesday after-ment in the brick school-house, St. John's. The meeting and a special significance, being the first annual meeting of the being the first annual meeting of the association. It now number fifty members, the daughters of troose who do not propose that respect for dear memories shall die with them, at least through their fault. Interest on the part of the young girls who compose it is growing steadily, and gives very pleasant prom-

On Wednesday evenings during Lent on Wednesday evenings during Lean a series of lectures on church history with stereopticon illustrations will be given at Christ Ephreopal church, Rev. Preston Nash, rector. The period covered will begin with the days of the Apostles. The lectures premise to be worth large attendance and to have it.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Craigle entertained a small company of friends in honor of Mr. P. Gardner Coffin, and Mrs. Fred. E. Craigle, both of Catskill, N. Y., The latter centleman is the editor of the Catskill Examines, and both are well known throughout New York Saite. Their trip to Richmond was a fighte one. They took in Hichmond for a few hours, en route home after the innavaration. Owing to the Lenten season, Mr. and Mrs. Craicle did not include in the invitations a fifth of the friends whom otherwise, would certainly have been inotherwise, weald certainty have been inclinded. Indeed hurried preparation made that impossible. They were, however, exceedingly anxious that their guests should meet some of our Southern ladies and with two exceptions, only the company was made up of Southerners. It was a thoroughly delightful evening, those present being Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Craigle, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Craigle, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Craigle, Mrs. and Mrs. F. J. Craigle, Mrs. Landerkin and Mrs. (Dr.) Small, of Cardiner, Malne: Mrs. 4. A Williams, Miss Annie Williams, Mrs. Geo. Watt, Miss Bessie Call, Miss Florence Dickenson, Mr. Fondley Dickenson, Captain and Mrs. J. F. Mayer, Miss Rosa Mayer, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Currie, Judge and Mrs. D. C. Richardson, Miss Margie Parker, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Landerkin, Mr. James T. Estes, Mr. Edgar Fergusson, Mr. Harvie and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Davies.

No little pleasure was contributed to the evening by Mr. Davies. That gen-

Fergusson, Mr. Flarvie and Mr. and Mrs.

W. W. Davies.

No little pleasure was contributed to the evening by Mr. Davies. That sentlemen brought with him, for the New York guests to see his collection of "Confederate Jewels"—buttons from the coats of the Confederate, generals including Robert E. Lee, J. E. B. Stuart and Stonewall Jackson. Mr. and Mrs. Craigie were much indebted to him for his courteasy to their guests, and it is certain that the latter enjoyed examining them heartily, particulally with the accompaniment of war anecdote by Mr. Davies. Messrs.
Coffin and Craigie returned early yes-Comn and Craigie returned early yes-terday morning to New York. All who met them regret the brevity of their visit. Mrs. Charles Dunbar Roy(nee Ellet?), of Atlanta, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. T. H. Ellett, 807 west Franklin street, Mrs. Roy will remain in Richmond during Lent. Shale looking the Lent. She is looking charmingly, and her many friends will be happy to have her

Mrs. James Lyons will return from Washington to-day.

Miss Mary Lewis will not return to Richmond until next Wednesday.

The matinee musicale for last week was on Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Stevens, $19 Floyd avenue. Attention was divided between Schubert and Rossini, as follows:

Lines on Composers—Mrs. Chapla.
Semi Ramide (Rossini), Misses Louise Williams and Weber.
The Last Greeting (Schubert), Miss Pace.
Valse (Schubert), Miss Mers.

Ave Marka-Mrs. Blain.

Impromptu (Schubert), Miss Swasey, Solo-Mrs. Robert Groner, Serenade (Schubert), Miss Moore, Cujus Animam (Rossin), Miss Frankim, Massaka (Mana)

The Richmond Chapter, Daughters of good standing in the city can send their patients to the Retreat. The ladies hap to give the last number—"Allegro de Com-cert" (Chorin). He also accompanied Mrs. Munford, who sang three secotions:

Miss Leibermath to Wed.

The marriage of Miss Mattle Lieber-muth, daughter of Mr. F. Liebermuth, the well-known tobacco exporter here to Mr. Arnold Stiefel, of New York, has been announced. The ceremony will be per-formed at the Jefferson at noon next Thursday. The groom-elect is connected with the New York College of Music.

Red Men Meet

Manatoka Tribe of Red Men held a very enthusiastic meeting on last night, when degrees were conferred on those seeking advancement in the order. The tribe has increased its membership to such an extent as to necessitate a larger hall, and in the future will meet in the new Lee Camp Hall.

Honor to Philip Melanethon,

Services commemorating the four hundredth anniversary of the birth of Philip Melancthon will be held at the Young Men's Christian Association to-morrow at noon by the Ministerial Union of Rich mond and Munchestor. There will be mond and Manchester. There will be several bymas, prayer, scripture reading, and an address on 'Melarcthon' by Rev, Dr. Paul Menzel.

lander, A. A. Smith, C. H. Patterson, H. BEAUTIES TURN TO CHARITY. Their Carriages Roll Through the Slums

of New York City.

vant, Who Relieves Necessity-Young

Men Dance Attendance and Con. tribute Their Dollars.

BRAND NEW SYSTEM OF GOOD WORKS.

HOW IT IS DONE.

York is turning from lavish expenditure to earnest charity.

Recently, the Rev. W. S. Rainsferd, a pillar of the New York brotherhood of Preachers, declaimed in honest, Saxon fashion against the expenditure of wealth in great quantities for frivolous purposes, when starvation and death knocked at the doors of so many of the poverty-stricken of New York.

The age of the New York of the poverty-stricken of New York.

The age of the poverty-stricken of New York.

The word of New York.

The age of the poverty-stricken of New York.

the doors of so many of the povertystricken of New York.

The seed of consideration thus sown has taken root, shot forth and blossomed into good deeds.

The best of it all is that it is being done—this charitable work—in a very unostentatious manner, wholly unlike the balls and parties of various sorts, the lander, A. A. Smith, C. H. Patterson, H. P. McHart, Kate W. Cooke, Studley, Graydon, Louise Whittespy, Lena Felrenger, E. Slade, Armide V. Smith, Eliza A. Thorn, Tucker, C. M. Hurtzel, M. H. Dehon, A. B. Day, L. Martin, C. G. Hinsdale, G. Schuyler, Eleanor Cross Concerning the new method adopted by these charitably-inclined disciples of fashion, Edward T. Divine, the general secretary of the Charity Organization Society of New York, has this to say:

HOW IT IS DONE.

"Our present system of performing charitable work is carried out by dividing the city into eleven districts. Tress districts are in charge of committees composed of men and women who have given gratuitous consideration to the poor the districts to which of new compositions which will be heaft at an early date. .

BishopVan de Vyver is confined to his room by a slight indisposition.

The officers and prefects of the Holy Name Society will meet at the Bishop's residence next Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

The Ladler's Represedent Society of the The Ladfes' Benevolent Society of

after the high mass to-day.

The Prince of Naples Beneficial and Social Society meets the third Wednesday of each month in their hall, corner of Main and Seventeenth streets.

Members of the St. Vincent de Paul Confraternity and Branch 143, C. K. A., will go to communion in a body to-day at 7

A. M. The mass is for the deceased mem-bers of the branch.
On next Wednesday at 8 P.M., a novena will be begun at St. Joseph's church.
On that night the beautiful shrine of S.
Anthony of Padua will be blessed by Right
Rev. Bishop Van de Vyver. This shrine has been erected by Father Donovan. Instructions for First Communion con-tinue at the Cathedral on Saturday at 3 A. M.

As the result of a broken electric-light wire at Sixth and Broad streets, the Home Brewery Company is minus a fine horse. Yesterday evening about 7:30 o'clock, as one of the company's wagons was crossing the street at this place, the

Whether or no charity has become fashionable is a matter that is open to discussion. It is certain, however, that the fashionable have become charitable. In fact, it is not at all an uncommon sight, at the homes of the young women of fashions who are trying to lighten the loads of misery of a great city's poor, to witness the gathering of half a dozen or more pretty girls, earnestly lent on preparing boxes of warm clothing, provisions, and various other articles to be distributed where they will do the most good.

ARE DIFFERENT NOW.

Not so very long ago, it was the custom
to leave all this charitable, work

Charits distributed where they will do the location of the fashionable young to witness the gathering of half a dozen or more pretty girls, earnestly lent on proparing boxes of warm clothing,
most good.

ARE DIFFERENT NOW.

Not so very long ago, it was the custom
to leave all this charitable, work to leave all this cleartable work.

Charits distinct, to aff the wheat.

"Oftentimes the agents of charity are declared to be hard-hearted, unfeeling, and totally unfitted for the calling which they follow. It is absolutely necessary to discriminate, and it is often the case that the young lady's kind heact betrays her into adding the plausible unworthy."

The new plan of the fashionable young woman, for it can hardly be called a fad, is producing much more widespread effeet than was at first anticipated. In any large city, there is a somewhat numerous class of persons who follow in the lines laid out by what is called vocial.—The hearing of ex-Policeman Howland Lader Arest.

Examination it was found that the horse had sustained a compound fracture of the rich thing light and sustained.

Agent Taylor, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, was ant for, and ended the animal's sufferings with a bullet from his pistod. In any large city, there is a somewhat numerous class of persons who follow in the lines laid out by what is called vocial.—The hearing of the samination it was fo

Not so very long ago, it was the custom to leave all this charitable work, or at least the execution thereof, to the servants, and it is whispered in unkindly somes that not more than half that was intended for the poor ever reached them. Unfortunately, the gervants seemed to be fremly imbued with the idea that charteness of the gallant are being discovered by the college of the gallant are being discovered by the college of the gallant are being discovered by the college of the gallant are being discovered by the college of the gallant are being discovered by the college of the gallant are being discovered by the college of the gallant are being discovered by the college of the college of the gallant are being discovered by the college of the college of the gallant are being discovered by the college of the college of ity began at home.

It is all different now, and the carriage of the millionaire's daughter is no infrequent visitor to the streets where pov-

That is why sliks and satins, Paris bonnets, and pretty faces appear like visions where in the past sad-faced mothers and starving children formed the great majority of humanity upon which the sun occasionally shone.

The good these young women are doing is past estimate, almost. You cannot compute how charity in the right place has actually resulted, any more than you can tell how many gallons of water float past the Battery every twenty for house.

water noar hours.

People who know, the persons to whom charity giving is a business, say that these young women within a few weeks these young women within a few weeks have put a new phase upon the poverty problem of New York, a problem that the wisest and most thinking of all the New Yorkers into whose mind the idea of charity enters, have puzzled over and sought in vain to successfully solve.

It cannot be said that there young we-men are carrying on their work of good-ness after the fashion of a thoroughly independent organization. They are hand ness after the fashion of a thorocard independent organization. They are hand and glove with the various associations, particularly the Charity Organization Society of New York city.

It is not their desire to be victims of imposition, and that is the one great evil against which the charity dispensers are forced to contend every second. Soft hearts have generally been the companions of the pretty faces that have delved among the squalor and starvation in the purlicus of the East side, and many a story of hardship has been told which has, sadly enough, proven a dismal falsehood and for which there was not even a foundation.

a foundation.
SOME OF THEM. There is no doubt that the young wo-men who are engaged in this kindly work are representative of New York's Four Huddred. Read the names of some of them and

see. Here they are:
Misses Helen Gould, Lauterbach, Annie B. Jennings, Caroline White, E. M. Anderson, M. W. Bruce, H. C. Butler, Florence Harriot, Rachel L. Kennedy, H. L. Lawrence, Helen Parish, Mary L. Parsons, Louisa M. Rollins, C. P. Stokes, Olivia E. Phelps Stokes, Margaret B. Sturgis, Sarah Barney Sturgis, Phebe A. Olivia E. Phelps Stokes, Margaret B. Sturgis, Sarah Barney Sturgis, Phebe A. Thorn, E. Ellen Quchincloss, Helen T. Thorn, E. Ellen Quchincloss, Helen T. Barney, Jenny F. R. Barbour, Florence Benjamin, F. L. Benedlet, Laura Billings, L. P. Bliss, Kate Bond, Anna C. Brack-tt, Stowert Brown, Patth Brown, Pills, Physics, Phys. Rev. Ben. Phys. Rev. Ben. Phys. Rev. Phys. Phys. Rev. Phys. Rev. Phys. Rev. Phys. Phys. Rev. Phys. Phy ett, Stewart Brown, Edith Bryce, Ella F. Bunting, Rosalie Butler, Mary R, Cal-

In Catholie Circles,

A meeting of the St. Vincent de Paul Conference of the Cathedrai parish will be held after the late mass to-day. The Cathedral choir will have choir The Cathedral choir will have chost practice hereafter on Wednesday afternoons at 4 for ladies and on Friday at 8 'clock for gentlemen, with general rehearsals at 8 o'clock P. M. Saturdays.

Professor J. Sebastian Rafferty, or-store-yard in this city last Friday night, came up before Mayor Harriss this morning. A flatboatman numed Pridgen testified that he saw Howland strike a match and set fire to two barrels of tar. Another witness testified to seeing Howland drunk and going in the direction of the naval stores yard a few minutes before the fire broke out.

Mayor Harriss held the defendant under one thousand dollar ball to appear at the next session of the Criminal Court, which convenes next Wednesday. In default of ball Howland was committed to jail.

to jail.

An unusual appearance in the heavens this morning caused great excitement among the negrues, many of whom imagined it was the appearance of a number of "Dog Suns." The cloudiness of the heavens obscured at intervals the heaving and brightness of the phenomena, yet on the whole it was a magnificent display and one not often witnessed in this latitude.

You Don't Go a-foot

ganist of the Cathodral, has a number

ON a long journey because once in a while there is a smashup on the railroad.

Pecause somebody somewhere some time has had an unsatisfactory experience with ready-made Clothing is no reason why you should taboo it forever. We have the experience of making a thousand garments where your tailor makes one. We do our level best because we promise the same satisfaction you get from him-even tho' the price isn't half as much. Try us this season-begin with the Spring Top Coats-and if you stick to us as long as we give satisfaction that will be always.

Showing 50 dozen new Spring Scarfs. A good Derby, $2. Haven't you limped long enough? Hanan's Shoes are walk-easies.

A. Saks & Co.